

Preparing for the GAT General exam is essential to achieve a good score. Here's a step-by-step guide to help you prepare for each section, starting with Quantitative Reasoning, Analytical Reasoning, and Verbal Reasoning:

Quantitative Reasoning

1. Begin with files named "Quantitative Reasoning (1-26)" as they cover 95% of this portion.
2. Recommended channel for additional support: "Aspirants of Future.", if want. <https://youtu.be/L2HDFpVv9w0?si=708QQhsNrDbk4sbl>

Analytical Reasoning

1. Ensure your concepts are crystal clear.
2. Watch videos on the "Mujahid Academy" YouTube channel to understand the basics.
3. Work on files named "Null File."
4. Utilize the "Analytical Book" file, which contains 25 practice tests. Aim to complete 8 to 10 of these for practice.

[YouTube Channel for Analytical Reasoning]

<https://youtu.be/AprHeFNQMe4?si=WKuYuMZITTexM40m>

Verbal Reasoning

1. For Analogies, use the "Updated Analogies" file. To clarify your concepts further, visit the "Technically Explained" YouTube channel, which provides <https://youtu.be/W7A18KO9MmA?si=qfEBkP4RaPEBR9b6>
<https://youtu.be/cwR-0hnPhk8?si=-qj8vd4MypB3dvj>
<https://youtu.be/w2vaPLvvFmg?si=8BFUFwmfBOnMEI6I>
2. For Paragraph Comprehension, explore files labeled "Verbal 1 to 16," along with the provided guidelines.
3. Be prepared for other sections like sentence correction, preposition, and antonyms.

THIS PORTION is all based on your prior knowledge like vocabulary.

Remember to study systematically and allocate sufficient time for each section.