

15. All will be well when you will come.

Errors Selected from University Papers (P.U. 2000)

1. After all he had to confide on somebody.
2. He was drowned when bathing.
3. She sing her poem to the audience.
4. The envy is an evil passion.
5. Saleema is a woman which gave me courage.

Solution

1. After all he had to confide in somebody.
2. He was drowned while bathing.
3. She sings her poem to the audience.
4. Envy is an evil passion.
5. Saleema is a woman who gave me courage.

(P.U. 2001 Group I)

1. The principal refused acceding to my request.
2. Neither the ministers nor the king deserve to be praised.
3. He as well as his brother were present in the meeting.
4. He ran lest he miss the train.
5. I enjoyed during the holidays.
6. There is nothing but willing negligence.
7. Climbing down the tree, one of the eggs broke.
8. The doctor saw the pulse of the patient.
9. You should employ only such men which are reliable.
10. He told the judge that sir I am not guilty.

Solution

1. The principal refused to accede to my request.
2. Neither the ministers nor the king deserves to be praised.
3. He as well as his brother was present in the meeting.
4. He ran lest he should miss the train.
5. I enjoyed myself during the holidays.
6. There is nothing else but negligence.
7. As we were climbing down the hill, one of the eggs broke.
8. The doctor felt the pulse of the patient.
9. You should employ only such men as are reliable.
10. He told the judge, "Sir, I am not guilty."

(P.U. 2001 Group II)

1. Each of the boys give their own version of the incident.

2. I like you better than him.
3. One must not boast of his success.
4. I who is most concerned was not consulted.
5. The flowers smell sweetly.
6. Solomon was the wisest of all other men.
7. No less than fifty miners were killed in the explosion.
8. Being a very hot day, I remained in my room.
9. Going up the hill, an old mosque was seen.
10. He returned quicker than I expected.

Solution

1. Each of the boys gave his own version of the incident.
2. I like you better than he.
3. One must not boast of one's success.
4. I who am most concerned was not consulted.
5. The flowers smell sweet.
6. Solomon was the wisest of all men.
7. No fewer than fifty miners were killed in the explosion.
8. It being a very hot day, I remained in my room.
9. As I was going up the hill, I saw an old mosque.
10. He returned much quicker than I expected.

(P.U. 2002 Group I)

1. He shot himself after bidding his wife good bye with a gun.
2. She exclaimed what a nice dress it was.
3. I admitted my brother into school.
4. He compensated me for the loss.
5. He was prevented to go abroad.
6. I know all about that film because I had seen it twice.
7. You are my friend who should not worry me.
8. The notorious dacoit, with his followers have escaped.
9. I have lain the book on the table.
10. Such a result cannot be wondered.

Solution

1. After bidding his good bye, he shot himself with a gun.
2. She exclaimed "What a nice dress it was!"
3. I got my brother admitted into school.
4. He compensated me for the loss.
5. He was prevented from going abroad.
6. I know all about that film because I have seen it twice.
7. You being a friend of mine, should not worry.

8. The notorious dacoit, with his followers has escaped.
9. I have laid the book on the table.
10. Such a result cannot be imagined.

(P.U. 2002 Group II)

1. The bereaved father was overwhelmed by grief.
2. Energy is a marked feature in young men.
3. His whereabouts are not known.
4. He is one of those boys who has always worked hard.
5. I am elder than my younger brother.
6. Khalid is more intelligent than the whole class.
7. After having crossed the river, we found the road clear.
8. Sarfraz arrived at the party latter than I.
9. I have passed the examination last year.

Solution

1. The bereaved father was overwhelmed with grief.
2. Energy is a marked feature of the young men.
3. His whereabouts is not known.
4. He is one of those boys who have always worked hard.
5. I am elder to my younger brother.
6. Khalid is is the most intelligent of the whole class.
7. Having crossed the river, we found the road clear. OR
After we had crossed the river, we found the road clear.
8. Sarfraz arrived at the party later than I.
9. I passed the examination last year.

(P.U. 2003 Group I)

1. Please excuse me that I am late.
2. I hope you are having good health.
3. Such men who are false to their friends should be avoided.
4. The jury were unanimous in their verdict.
5. In spite of his faults, I cannot help but like him.
6. Tennis ball bounces highly as compared to the cricket.
7. The day passed happily, playing card and rowing in the river.
8. Many a men are killed in the battle.
9. A noble man prefers death than dishonour.
10. Our examination begins from Monday.

Solution

1. Please excuse me for being late.
2. I hope you are enjoying good health.
3. Such men as are false to their friends should be avoided.

4. The jury was unanimous in its verdict.
5. In spite of his faults, I cannot but like him.
6. Tennis ball bounces high as compared to the cricket.
7. We passed the day happily, in playing card and rowing in the river.
8. Many a man is killed in the battle.
9. A noble man prefers death to dishonour.
10. Our examination begins on Monday.

(P.U. 2003 Group II)

1. The man was sentenced to death, who has committed the murder.
2. He is the adoptive son of his parents.
3. How could I go unless I have asked your permission.
4. Having entered the house, the door was shut at once.
5. He neither has nor will accept your terms.
6. This is the most shortest way to go there.
7. The boy took his birth in an aristocratic family.
8. He told his servant that bring a cup of tea.
9. He asked his son why have you not done your home work.
10. Bashir's business was hardly hit by strikes.

Solution

1. The man who had committed the murder was sentenced to death.
2. He is the adopted son of his parents.
3. How could I go unless I had asked your permission.
4. Having entered the house, he shut the door.
5. He neither has accepted nor will accept your terms.
6. This is the shortest way to go there.
7. The boy was born in an aristocratic family.
8. He told his servant to bring a cup of tea.
9. He asked his son "Why have you not done your home work. "
He asked his son why he had not done his home work.
10. Bashir's business was hard hit by strikes.

OR

(P.U. 2004 Group I)

1. Climbing down the stairs, he fell headlong.
2. Tell me the last news of war.
3. They decided for starting out their journey.
4. He denied to accept the invitation.
5. The jury were unanimous in their verdict.
6. Whom she was talking?
7. The population of Karachi is greater than any other town in Pakistan.
8. I went there with a view to get first hand information.

9. Though he has enough money, but he will not purchase a horse.
10. I do not know that reason why he dislikes me.

Solution

1. As he was climbing down the stairs, he fell headlong.
2. Tell me the latest news of war.
3. They decided to start on their journey.
4. He refused to accept the invitation.
5. The jury was unanimous in its verdict.
6. Who was she talking?
7. The population of Karachi is greater than than of any other town in Pakistan.
8. I went there with a view to getting the first hand information.
9. Though he has enough money, yet he will not purchase a horse.
10. I do not know why he dislikes me.

(P.U. 2004 Group II)

1. Open this knot.
2. He does not care for his money.
3. He behaved cowardly.
4. I am ill since three months.
5. Send this letter on my home address.
6. There is nothing such as chance.
7. My friend told me that he is not to blame.
8. The judge disposed the case at once.
9. No sooner I had fallen, than they ran away.
10. What to speak of French, he does not know even English.

Solution

1. Untie this knot. (کُش)
2. He does not take care of.
3. He behaved in a cowardly manner.
4. I have been ill for three months.
5. Send this letter at my home address.
6. There is nothing as chance.
7. My friend told me that he was not to blame.
8. The judge disposed of the case at once.
9. No sooner did I fall, than they ran away.
10. Not to speak of French, he does not know even English.

(P.U. 2005 Group I)

1. He or she is thief.
2. Certificates are attached here with.
3. She died from cancer.

4. No sooner he left than the storm broke.
5. I would sooner quit than to do it.
6. Slower your more greater the time you take.
7. They considered him as a great fool.
8. She was too pleased to hear the news.
9. He walks as if he is lame.
10. One can learn his lesson if he applies his mind to it.

Solution

1. Either he or she is a thief.
2. Certificates are attached here to. Or Certificates are enclosed herewith.
3. She died of cancer.
4. No sooner did he leave than the storm broke.
5. I would sooner quit than do it.
6. The slower you move the greater time you take.
7. They considered him a great fool.
8. She was very pleased to hear the news.
9. He walks as if he were lame.
10. One can learn one's lesson if one applies one's mind to it.

(P.U. 2005 Group I)

1. For goodnes's sake leave me alone.
2. She is more intelligent of the two.
3. Who do you want to see?
4. Let Sabiha and I go there.
5. We saw much less films than last year's.
6. Between you and I, he is a thief.
7. The climate of Multan is better than Lahore.
8. There is a little truth in your statement.
9. I only did two sums.
10. Last part of the book is very difficult.

Solution

1. For goodness sake, leave me alone.
2. She is the more intelligent of the two.
3. Whom do you want to see.
4. Let Sabiha and me go there.
5. We saw much fewer films than last year.
6. Between you and me, he is a thief.
7. The climate of Multan is better than that of Lahore.
8. There is little truth in your statement.
9. I did only two sums.

10. The latter part of the book is very difficult.
(P.U. 2006 Group I)

1. They found that the ship is leaking.
2. He was arrested under the charge of stealing.
3. He is sitting besides his mother.
4. So nice man I have never seen.
5. Faisalabad is Manchester of Pakistan.
6. The gold is more costly than the silver.
7. He is man of words.
8. What is this books price.
9. His hairs have turned grey.
10. Either he or I are all right.

Solution

1. They found that the ship was leaking.
2. He was arrested on the charge of stealing.
3. He is sitting beside his mother.
4. Such a nice man I have never seen.
5. Faisalabad is the Manchester of Pakistan.
6. Gold is more costly than silver.
7. He is a man of word.
8. What is the price of this book.
9. His hair have turned grey.
10. Either he or I am all right.

(P.U. 2006 Group II)

1. I met him prior than his departure for Karachi.
2. He is the ablest and efficient teacher.
3. They did their duty should be rewarded.
4. It is no doubt that the man is dead.
5. I doubt that he will come.
6. No sooner he left than the storm broke.
7. He likes me reading the novel.
8. I asked him what he ate.
9. He ran as fast as he could run.
10. I said it in his face.

Solution

1. I met him prior to his departure for Karachi.
2. He is the ablest and most efficient teacher.
3. They did their duty to be rewarded.
4. It is no doubt that man is dead.

5. I doubt he will come.
6. No sooner did he leave than, the storm broke.
7. He likes me to read the novel.
8. I asked him what he had eaten.
9. He ran as fast as he could.
10. I said it at his face.

(P.U. 2007 Group I)

1. My brother's only help were his friends.
2. These two boys hate one another.
3. We should pray God every morning.
4. It is half past five in my watch.
5. He availed of the leave.
6. He visited many worth seeing places.
7. Neither he comes, nor he writes.
8. Why he wrote that foolish letter.
9. I shall stay Muree for few days.
10. He only is responsible for this act.

Solution

1. The only help of my brother was his friends.
2. These two boys hate each other.
3. We should pray to God every morning.
4. It is half past five in my watch. OR It is half past five by my watch.
5. He availed of the leave. OR He availed himself of the leave.
6. He visited many places worth seeing.
7. Neither does he come, nor he writes.
8. Why did he write that foolish letter.
9. I shall stay Muree for a few days.
10. He is only responsible for this act.

(P.U. 2007 Group II)

1. He is M.A while his friend is B.A.
2. He has been died today.
3. He is hardly hit by the bank's failure.
4. He is another side of the question.
5. The debate was now come to a close.

6. He ran three hundred meters race.
7. My tooth is painning very badly.
8. Najma eats like Salma does.
9. He has lit up the fire of reform.
10. I do not know that honesty was the best policy.

Solution

1. He is an M.A. while his friend is a B.A.
2. He has died today.
3. He is hard hit by the bank's failure.
4. This is the other side of the question.
5. The debate was now coming to an end.
6. He ran three hundred meter race.
7. My tooth is aching very badly.
8. Najma eats as Salma does.
9. He has lit the fire of reform.
10. I do not know tht honesty is the best policy.

(P.U. 2008 Group-I)

1. Our parents may be resembled to a tree which gives us cool shade.
2. I do not know where was he at that time.
3. I request you not to cut jokes in class.
4. If I will fail in this examination, I will give the next.
5. We met at the house of a mutual friend to make peace.
6. Have you heard about your son's robbery?
7. The downfall of the king is to be attributed to nothing else than pride.
8. The downfall of the king is to be attributed to nothing than pride.
9. Scarcely had he gone than a policeman knocked at the door.
10. Have you seen her latest photograph?

Solution

1. Our parents may be resembled a tree which gives us cool shade.
2. I do not know where he was at that time.
3. I request you not to make jokes in class.
4. If I fail in this examination, I will take the next.
5. We met at the house of a common friend to make place.
6. Have you heard about the robbery of your son.
7. The downfall of the king is to be attributed to nothing else but the pride.
8. If you do not come, I shall not help you.
9. Scarcely had he gone when a policeman knocked at the door.
10. Have you seen her recent photograph.

(P.U. 2008 Group II)

1. Poetires have their appeal to the heart.
2. This poultry belongs to him.
3. Unless you do n't work hard, you cannot secure good marks.
4. I hate these sorts of men.
5. He has been operated.
6. He is such a man who is liked by everyone.
7. He said to them if can you help me.
8. The rotten mangoes smell badly.
9. Please, do the needful.
10. Leave was availed at once.

Solution

1. Poetry has its appeal to the heart.
2. These poultly belong to him.
3. Unless you work hard, you cannot secure good marks.
4. I hate this sort of men.
5. He has been operated upon.
6. He is is such a man as is liked by everyone.
7. He said to them if they could help him.
8. The rotten mangoes smell bad.
9. Please do what is necessary.
10. Leave was availed of at once.

(P.U. 2009 Group I)

1. Saleem and I am enemies.
2. He has often beat me at tennis.
3. He was born in Nineteen hundred eighteen.
4. I have not seen you since a long time.
5. The time passed off quickly.
6. I cannot pull on my work.
7. Write with ink.
8. I do not care for these sort of things.
9. She is not clever to do it.
10. He is a coward boy.

Solution

1. Saleem and I are enemies.
2. He has often beaten me at tennis.
3. He was born in 1918.
4. I have not seen for a long time.
5. Time passed quickly.

6. I cannot manage my work.
7. Write in ink.
8. I do not care for this sort of things.
9. She is not clever enough to do it.
10. He is a cowardly boy.

(P.U. 2009 Group, II)

1. My brother's only help were his friends.
2. These two boys hate one another.
3. We should play God every morning.
4. It is half past five in my watch.
5. He availed of the leave.
6. He visited many worth seeing places.
7. Neither he comes, nor he writes.
8. Why he wrote that foolish letter.
9. I shall stay Muree for few days.
10. He only is responsible for this act.

Solution

1. The only help of my brother was his friends.
2. These two boys hate each other.
3. We should pray to God every morning.
4. It is half past five in my watch. OR It is half past five by my watch.
5. He availed of the leave. OR He availed himself of the leave.
6. He visited many places worth seeing.
7. Neither does he come, nor does he write.
8. Why did he write that foolish letter.
9. I shall stay Muree for a few days.
10. He is only responsible for this act.

(P.U. 2010 Group-I)

1. There is a best teacher in that class.
2. These all pears are ripe.
3. He is reading at the medical college.
4. Few people attended the meeting.
5. The man is selfish by nature.
6. I seldom or ever take medicine.
7. The child died at three year old.
8. Not a line of the lectures were written
9. He is bent to do it.
10. It is much hot today.

Solution

1. There is a very good teacher in that class.

2. All these pears are ripe.
3. He is studying at the medical college or He is a student of the medical college.
4. A few people attended the meeting.
5. Man is selfish by nature.
6. I seldom or never take medicine.
7. The child died at the age of three.
8. Not a line of the lecture was written.
9. He is bent upon dowing it.
10. It is very hot today.

(P.U. 2010 Group-II)

1. He made a goal against our college.
2. I shot the bear but missed.
3. They pay not attention to their old father.
4. He is the student whom I hink deserves praise.
5. Is not he your brother?
6. A darkest clud has a silver lining.
7. Aslam has been ill from five days.
8. Please tell me where is your brother.
9. No less than twenty people died in the accident.
10. Himalays lie in the north of India.

Solution

1. He scored a goal against our college.
2. I shot at the bear but missed.
3. They do not pay attention to their old father.
4. He is the student who I think deserves praise.
5. Is he not your brother.
6. A dark cloud has a silver lining.
7. Aslam has been ill for five days.
8. Please tell me where your father is.
9. No fewer than twenty people died in the accident.
10. Himalayas lies in the North of India.